Position: Irrigation Technician

As an employee of Horticulture Services, you'll learn that our core values are more than just buzzwords, they're what define each and every one of us! Courtesy, Promptness, and Attention to Detail are what makes us stand out from the competition and are a big part of why we've been a leader in the Landscape Maintenance Industry for over 30 years! We strive to create a work environment where everyone is heard, whether they've worked here 30 years or 30 hours: this helps create a culture of belonging which is why our average length of employment is over 7 years. Helping one another grow & learn while successfully completing a job develops skills that we can all use, not only in the workplace but throughout our lives. If you are new to the industry or just need a different company, come and show us what you've got, maybe we'll all learn something new.
